Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 03 September 2003.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of the Amendment filed 2 September 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Justel et al. (US Patent 6,559,598; hereinafter Justel in view of Murata et al. (US Patent 6,611,099; hereinafter Murata).

The applied reference has common inventors with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). For applications filed on or after November 29, 1999, this rejection might also be overcome by showing that the subject matter of the reference and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person. See MPEP § 706.02(l)(1) and § 706.02(l)(2).

Re claim 1: Justel discloses, in figure 1 and throughout the disclosure, a plasma picture screen provided with:

- a front plate (1) comprising a glass plate (3);
- a dielectric layer (4);
- a UV-reflecting layer (column 6, lines 58-59);
- a protective layer (5);
- a back plate (2);
- a phosphor layer (10);
- a ribbed structure (13) subdividing the space between the front plate and the back plate into plasma cells which are filled with gas (column 5, line 40)
- one or more electrode arrays (6,7,11) on the front plate and the back plate for generating corona discharges in the plasma cells;
 - wherein UV light with a wavelength between 200 and 350 nm is produced by the discharges (column 4, lines 11-12).

However, Justel fails to teach or fairly suggest the protective layer contacting the gas.

Murata discloses, in figure 33 and throughout the disclosure, the protective layer (1117) covering the UV-reflecting layer (1119) and being in contact with the gas (column 6, lines 64-65).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made have the protective layer of Justel in contact with the gas because the protective layer has a high emission efficiency while protecting the elements of the front panel from harmful emissions. Therefore, the definition of the image is improved as well as extending the life of the device.

Re claim 2: Justel discloses the corona discharges producing a UV light with a wavelength of between 200 and 350nm (column 4, lines 11-12).

Re claim 3: Justel discloses the gas to be a rare gas (column 4, lines 21-22).

Re claim 4: Justel discloses the UV-reflecting layer comprises a material selected from the group comprising metal oxides, metal fluorides, metal phosphates metal polyphosphates, metal metaphosphates, metal borates, and diamond (column 3, lines 14-16).

Re claim 5: Justel discloses the UV-reflecting layer contains particles with a particle diameter less than 300nm (column 6, line 62).

Re claim 6: Justel discloses the UV-reflecting layer contains particles with a particle diameter between 20 nm and 150 nm (column 6, line 62).

Re claim 7: Justel discloses the UV-reflecting layer having a thickness of 0.5-5 μ m (columns 7-8, embodiments 1-3).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
